

Nick Dukas’ “One and Forever Love” Makes CMJ Top Five Jazz Albums for April 13, 2015

APRIL 14, 2015—Vocalist Nick Dukas combines swing jazz with early rock & roll to create a new hybrid sound with his 11 songs on “One & Forever Love”. Two original tunes penned by Nick are also included in this collection of classic hits by The Ink Spots, Dean Martin, Elvis, Bobby Darin, Dion, Bobby Rydell, and even Carlos Santana.

About Nick Dukas

You won’t be able to stop tapping your toes and snapping your fingers as Nick turns in his best performance ever. Of the eleven songs on this CD, nine are well known songs that Nick along with top industry musicians adding their special touch, and the other two works are new and original.

The first of which is a jazzy tune “Mr. Moon (Take It Away)” that was written as a duet with the well-known lyricists Anthony Little and Jennifer Day Morrison. Morrison shares the spotlight with Nick on the snappy vocals. “Mr. Moon” has a catchy melody that should become a cross-over hit. The second of the original songs is a testament to love, entitled “One and Forever Love” written by Nick, Anthony Little and Doug Shawe. The album is filled with magical moments that range from Nick’s singing to Jazzy instrumentals.
